Recommendation letter

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to enthusiastically recommend Emilia Florek-Guerrero for a Happiness training in your organization.

My name is Jelissa Risse, Communication and Event Manager at l'écoline. I had the pleasure of working with Emilia Florek-Guerrero, Happiness Trainer who gave an hour workshop in November 2023 to our clients. Of all the coaches I've worked with since we provide conferences for parents, Emilia Florek-Guerrero is among the most authentic and fascinating.

Prior to the workshop, she reached out to us in a very professional manner and outlined her intentions in a clear way indicating the benefits for us, our clients and herself. During the workshop, Emilia Florek-Guerrero gave a professional presentation. Her presentation in English was fluid, authentic and proved to be outstanding. Her expertise in the Science of Happiness was a huge asset for our community that led to fruitful discussions and deep conversations about the topic.

Asking for feedback at the end as well as this letter of recommendation ensure her strong motivation to go beyond to satisfy their audience.

I am confident without hesitation that Emilia Florek-Guerrero would be an excellent fit for any organization willing to strengthen their employee's and direction's skills around wellbeing.
